PAST TENSES

Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs.
(Past simple, past progressive or past perfect)

Many years ago there lived (live) a businessman named Ebenezer Scrooge. Everyone knew (know) him, because he was (be) a very greedy and selfish man. Scrooge didn't like (not like) Christmas. He was (be) only interested in money and complained (complain) about his assistant, Bob Cratchit, who wanted (want) to take one day off to spend some time with his family at Christmas.

After Cratchit had left (leave), Scrooge heard (hear) a strange noise. Marley's ghost was hovering (hover) over the stairs. He warned (warn) Scrooge that he needed (need) to change, otherwise he would be cursed like him. Scared to death, Scrooge went (go) to sleep.

After some time he was woken up, because the window had opened (open). When he closed (close) it he saw (see) the first ghost in his bedroom. It was (be) the Ghost of Christmas Past. He showed (show) Scrooge a Christmas from his past when he was (be) happy.

The Ghost of Christmas Present appeared (appear) in Scrooge's kitchen. He showed (show) Scrooge how Cratchit was celebrating (celebrate) Christmas with his family. There he saw (see) Cratchit's son, Tim, who was (be) very ill and , couldn't (not can) walk.

The last ghost took (take) Scrooge to a funeral. He showed (show) him a gravestone with Scrooge's name on. Scrooge was (be) very sad, because no one had come (come) to his funeral.

After the three ghosts had visited (visit) Scrooge, he decided (decide) to change and to stop being mean or greedy. Cratchit became (become) Scrooge's partner and Mr. Scrooge celebrated (celebrate) Christmas together with Cratchit's family.
