

Simple Present 1

Put the words in the right order. Write the sentences into your exercise book.

1. Do you take a shower in the mornings?
2. Does Peter take the bus to school?
3. My mother isn't at home.
4. These shoes aren't comfortable.
5. Ben never eats cornflakes in the morning

Negate the following sentences. Write them into your exercise book.

e.g. I work at home. → I don't work at home.

1. You don't work very hard.
2. Jake and Sue don't like rock music.
3. She doesn't go to the cinema.
4. We don't eat lunch at the restaurant.
5. They don't play computer games.

Ask questions. Write them into your exercise book.

e.g. He works at home → Does he work at home?

1. Does Jack play the guitar?
2. Does she live in London?
3. Does Ben eat toast every day?
4. Do Leo and Lia arrive on time?
5. Do Ben and Jackie miss the bus?

Simple Present 2

1. Underline the signal words for the Simple Present in the following sentences.

I always do my homework right after school.

On Saturdays Sam and his friends play soccer at the park.

I'm never sleepy in the evening.

Every Monday Mandy wakes up at seven.

Do you often play football at the park?

We go to Pablo's restaurant every week.

Usually our teacher is prepared for class.

Mother's Day is in May every year.

2. Ask questions. Write them into your exercise notebook.

Does she always go to bed at nine o'clock?

Does he like peanut butter sandwiches?

Do they play football often?

Is he an awesome tennis player?

Is she the fastest runner in her class?

Simple Past 1

Fill in the table. Find the right past form for the verbs.

Infinitive	Simple Past
win	won
visit	visited
tell	told drive	drove
catch	caught
walk	walked
talk	talked
drink	drank
come	came forget	forgot
be	was/were
go	went
work	worked
write	wrote
read	read

Simple Past 2

Put the verb into the Simple Past.

1. The students didn't work very hard.
2. They didn't drop the apples.
3. The bird flew high in the sky.
4. The swimming pool wasn't very full so we swam in the morning.
5. I didn't like apples when I was young.
6. Mrs Dawson taught French last year.
7. Jane got a bike yesterday.
8. You read a good book last week.
9. We went to a shop an hour ago.
10. My family and I watched a film yesterday.
11. My sister and I didn't argue a lot when we were kids.
12. The class didn't play football in P.E.
13. The friends met in front of the café.
14. The doctor gave him some medicine.
15. The man knew all the answers.
16. Peter payed for Emily's ticket.
17. The movie began at midnight.
18. My parents had two 2 dogs when I was a child.
19. We drove to Cologne during summer break.
20. My parents spoke with the teacher yesterday.
21. I spent a lot of money at the store.
22. Tim threw the ball very far.
23. Tanja didn't understand the math exercise.

Simple Past 3

1. Underline the signal words for the Simple Past in the following sentences..

Yesterday it rained very hard but I still went outside to play football.

My sister helped me move to a new apartment last weekend.

She visited her friend in 2011.

The football match started an hour ago.

Last week the Olympic Games finished in London.

She sent a text message two minutes ago.

Last summer we went to Spain.

2. Put the following text into the Simple Past. Write it into your exercise notebook.

Like many American teenagers, 16-year-old Michael Adams needed money. His parent's allowance wasn't enough. He wanted to get a car; he needed new clothes, and he had a new girlfriend. So when he read the ad for a job, he thought, "That's the perfect one for me." He applied for the job. The job interview was tough. The manager asked many questions. Michael answered all questions and got the job. Ten hours a week and the minimum wage was OK.

Simple Past 4

Put the sentences into the Simple Past. Write them into your exercise book.

1. I loved to play basketball.
2. The North High School team won the game.
3. Mrs Clarke was very patient.
4. Michael swam in the sea.
5. Tara and Lisa visited the shopping centre.

Negate the following sentences. Write them into your exercise book.

e.g. I worked at home. → I didn't work at home.

1. We didn't want the new car.
2. They didn't try out the new camera..
3. Ben didn't phone his friend.
4. The little girl didn't cry.
5. The weather wasn't very nice last week.

Ask questions. Write them into your exercise book.

e.g. He worked at home → Did he work at home?

1. Did she play basketball?
2. Did Ben learn English as a Second Language last year?
3. The book wasn't interesting.
4. It wasn't your birthday last weekend.
5. It wasn't warm in Spain two days ago.

Mixed Tenses 1

Put in the verbs in the right form.

Yesterday my uncle and I went (go) ice skating.

On Sundays my husband and I watch (watch) TV.

Mrs. S taught (teach) English last year.

My sister studied (study) in England last year.

He is (be) always late for class.

Melanie is reading (read) her favourite book at the moment.

The family stayed (stay) at a very nice hotel during their holiday..

The family also visited (also visit) a famous film studio.

I helped (help) you with your homework last weekend.

My brother swam (swim) in the hotel pool yesterday.

Mia draws (draw) a picture of her family.

Leo sang (sing) a song at the last school party.

Elena was (be) at school. On her way home she lost (lose) her phone.