She swaps clothes with her friends, for example.

Sometimes she resells her clothes after wearing them only once.

Miss Fashion's trendy blog

Hi everyone!

Can you believe it? I finally found that awesome bag in Eric Wu's shop.

On a scale of one to ten I would give his shop a nine. I was browsing shop windows in Cheung Sha Wan Road when I suddenly saw it! It's so hard to find the latest clothes if you don't browse the shops every day. Next time I'll tell you how to save lots of money by swapping or reselling clothes.

CU soon,

Miss Fashion

Well, they collect sneakers.

The best place to look for the latest sneakers is in the heart of Hong Kong.

One sneakerhead bought a pair of sneakers for more than 5,000 Hong Kong dollars. That's more than 500 euros.

He almost went crazy when he found his favourite pair of golden sneakers.

I would never spend all my pocket money on sneakers.

But I must add that I'm crazy about bags.

A cheap pair costs at least 30 euros.

You should always keep the receipt and the original box because you may want to bring the sneakers back to the shop.
